SULZER'S

And so will you when you see our Holiday Stock. Instead of laughing in your sleeve, you will laugh in your stocking, which won't seem half big enough to hold the gifts you covet.

PEOPLE WITH BIG FEET

Will be so proud of the fact when they realize the bargains that will go into the big stockings. We can't spare space to give a list of our stock, and to attempt to judge of our display by samples would be like lying down on one feather to judge how a feather bed would feel. You can't

Put the Ocean in a Tea-pot,

And we can't put a list of goods in an advertising space. Come and see the goods; that's the only way. Feast your eyes upon the array of gifts that are going to make lots of folks happy. COME! for that's the only way we can convince you that this is no mere

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1891

It will be speaker Myers next.

This will be a very busy town for the next two weeks.

People visiting this town who have not been here for years are pleased to notice the very great improvement and growth of our city.

PRESIDENT Harrison's message would have been a very creditable document had he mentioned the fact that the best vitrified brick in the country were made right here in Cloverport.

LEXINGTON wants to hold a Centennial Celebration next year, in honor of the admission of Kentucky into the Union as a State. It is right and proper that it should be held and Lexington is the place to hold it.

HARRY SOMERS, of the Elizabethtown News knows a thing or two about the boys of the state press. He sizes them up about right. When it comes to an all round newspaper man, Harry is not behind any of them. He is a successful combination.

The merchants of this city eclipse all of their previous efforts this year in their holiday displays. We mean, of course, the merchants who advertise. The other fellows are not in it. Their displays do credit to cities even of much larger growth, and they are worth coming miles to see

GENERAL Echols, Third Vice-President of the C. & O., passed down over the Texas Thursday in his private coach to Owensboro, where he delivered a most entertaining lecture, his subject being "Stone Wall Jackson." He was accompanied by Mr. Jno. F. O'Brien, Mr. W. T. Ralph, Mr. Robt. Wingate and Mr. H. D. Fitch, of Louisville.

A Woman About Town.

I hear much, and read more absurd things about "Woman's Rights." I think it simply horrid to hear all the can'ts about a woman's right to appear at the polls, to occupy the rostrum, the pulpit, or the professor's chair, to practice at the bar, to write M. D. after her name, or to jostle men in the race of life. Her path is removed from theirs, and I would never have her to struggle with men in the broad glaring highway they are called to tread, yet women have rights dear and sacred, which they should guard as the most priceless treasure of their sex; making of them holy, love-encircled duties, to the performance of which every energy of her being should be consecrated. It is her right to make homes and firesides happy for those she loves; to welcome them when the toilsome day is over, with tender words and bright smiles; to cheer, to console, and strengthen their hearts. It is her right to nurse the sick and suffering, to smooth the pillow and bathe the aching head, and to aid God's appointed ministers in the work of charity, to clothe the destitute, to visit those in affliction, and to aid the desolate children of poverty and neglect. It is her right to instill the first important lessons of truth into the hearts of her own children as well as the precious little ones with whom she is thrown in contact at school, Sabbath School and elsewhere.

"Thou must be true thyself
If thou the truth wouldst speak;
Thy soul must overflow, if thou
Another's soul wouldst reach
It needs the overflowing heart
To give the lips full speech."

I notice that Parkland secured a Kindergarten School after much talk, energy, perseverance, and hard work. The opposition was finally overcome by a few influential and wealthy ladies who in order to give it a start donated a sufficient sum to support the school for a year or more. Why cannot our own little city follow the example? The main point argued against it here is that it is too costly. One wealthy man said to me, I am taxed heavily for the public school and haven't had a child there for years. I said to him that's right you are helping to educate the poor children of your own city. Why not help to educate some of them 'at the Kindergarten? Alas! that anything so good, so superior, so excellent, so above everything else for training children, should be too costly for us to have here in our own prosperous city. All the the land is full of voices clamoring for the "proper training of children." When a child is no longer "only a little animal" when it has learned to smile and speak and ask questions, and lift up the light of an immortal soul for something to shine upon—then begins the Kindergarten training—if it were possible, then are the great life-lessons learned.

Mr. Talmage said when asked the question, what and who is woman? gave this definition. "Direct from God, a sacred and delicate gift with effusions so great nothing short of the Infinite God can tell their bound. Fashioned to refine and soothe and lift and irradiate home and society and the world. Of a value that you do not realize unless your mother lived long enough to let you know, or in some great exigency of life when all other resources failed, you were reinforced by a wife's faith in God, that nothing could disturb speak out, ye cradles and tell of the feet that wicked you, and the anxious face that hovered over you, speak out, ye homes now desecrated still in full bloom with the fairs of wife, mother and daughter and help me define what a woman is."

That big doll in Babbage's show window goes to the most popular little girl in this city. Make your purchases and cast your ballots.

Speaking about kidney and liver troubles Mr. James Bormes, Girdles, Ky., says: "Last summer I suffered from pain in my back, and trouble with my bladder. I had to be up frequently at night, and my rest was not enjoyed. I heard of Lightning Kidney and Liver Remedy, and purchased one bottle, and after taking same according to directions, I feel well. In fact, I can say it is the best medicine that ever went down a human throat for kidney and liver disease.—For sale by all dealers.

a Live-Wide-Awake Natural City of Two Thousand Souls.

only two weeks till Christmas.

We've received a pile of letters to Santa Claus.

What that big doll in Babbage's show is slow a beauty.

Be sure and see F. N. D'Huy's nice display of Christmas Goods.

Babbage's lamp display would do credit to Louisville 4th ave. store.

The engine at the citizens gas well has been sold to parties at Vanceburg, Ind.

R. Murray has a beautiful specimen of coral which he found near Lodi.

Brook Stephens who has been the host of Miss Pearl Miller returned home yesterday.

Who is the most popular little girl in the city? Cast your ballot for her at Babbage's.

Mrs. Fronie Allen, of Hawesville, was up yesterday to see Mrs. Pierce who is very ill.

Every purchase made at Babbage's entitles the purchaser to cast a vote for his favorite little girl.

Do you want a good story paper. Try New York Ledger at 5 cents a week delivered, Babbage's News Depot.

Mr. Thos. Watkins, of Barren county, was over to see his sister, Mrs. D. Imbleton. He returns home to-day.

Dr. J. F. Lightfoot, of Hawesville, says he is coming here to open a drug store.

Wants to get back to his old town way.

What measures are you taking to stop the cough? Let us suggest DeWitt's Cough and Consumption Cure. It is infallible.—Sold by Short & Haynes.

John W. Dent is at Hawesville buying acco for Smith & Hardy, Owensboro. He is paying $7 for leaf and lugs and has about 100,000 pounds within the next three days.

Do not fail to make your purchases early, also get one of those nice Japanese cups, they are given with every purchase of two dollars and over. To be had only at F. N. D'Huy's.

F. N. D'Huy's opening of Christmas goods Thursday night was a grand success and hundreds of people were on hand to take it in. His store was handsomely and artistically decorated for the season and a string band furnished the music.

Rev. Brandon is to be congratulated. His new bell has arrived and is a good one. If our neighbors over at Hardinsburg will prick up their ears some fine Sabbath morning they might hear its melodious tones wafted in that direction.

Mrs. Jas. Meador, Skillman, was in the city Friday and renewed her subscription to the News. Mrs. Meador says she can't get along without the News like a letter from home every week and she reads every line in it, even the verticements.

The Texas Doing a Big Freight Business.

The Owensboro Messenger of yesterday says: One hundred and five carloads of freight passed the Texas depot yesterday morning, making it the heaviest day in months. More than fifty cars are lying in Henderson awaiting shipments. A train of twenty-two cars, loaded with ice, passed going west.

A Brilliant Affair.

One of the most enjoyable entertainments of the season was given Wednesday night by Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Smart, at their spacious residence on Second street. It was another of those masquerade parties which are growing so popular in this city, and was given in honor of their son, Walter. The entire affair was a brilliant success. At 11 o'clock the masks were taken off and the young people were invited to partake of a delightful lunch, served in perfect taste and in way peculiar to the charming hostess.

PERSONAL.

Father Henney went to Cannelton Thursday.

Thos. Adkisson, Irvington, went to Owensboro Thursday.

Geo. Jordan was at the big fire in Louisville Wednesday.

J. D. Gregory made a business trip down the road Wednesday.

The presidents coach of the C. & O. passed down over the Texas Thursday.

The miners at Victoria will be paid their wages twice a month now instead of once as heretofore.

Rev. B. A. Geiger will preach at the Baptist church to-morrow the 13 inst., morning and night.

Miss Annie Ireland was awarded a prize by her teacher, Mrs. J. W. Meador, for memorizing the most verses in her bible class last Sunday at Skillman.

James Petrie mine boss at Victoria has resigned his position to go into the saloon business near that place. He went to Hawesville Thursday to make application for license.

Manager Skillman says everything is working nicely at the brick plant and that they are turning out some very fine brick. They are making now from twenty to twenty-five thousand a day.

Dr. J. M. Tydings, Louisville, passed down on the train Thursday to Owensboro. The Doctor says Cloverport has grown out of his knowledge. He used to live here, his father occupying the property now owned by W. H. Bowmer.

Miss Rhoda Smith who has been sick with consumption for so long died last Wednesday morning at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Elisha Collins. Miss Smith was about twenty years of age and was a great sufferer. She was buried at the old family burying grounds near Hite's Run.

A New Jail for Hawesville.

The Commissioners appointed by the Court of Claims at a recent meeting met in Hawesville Thursday, for the purpose of selecting plans and specifications for a new jail for Hancock county. McDonald Bros., Louisville, had a representative there with plans of the jail they built in this county. If a jail is built the same plans will be used. The Commissioners recommended that the old jail lot be sold, and that the new building be located South of the court-house.

There is some opposition to a new jail being built, as there always is, but will not effect the project, as we understand a majority of the court are in favor of it. The question will be decided in March when the court meets.

You may cough and cough and cough and cough and cough but you will not, if you take DeWitt's Cough and Consumption Cure—Sold by Short & Haynes.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1891

In Memoriam.

James C. Brashear, Nov. 25th, 1891. This being the sad anniversary of the death of our esteemed and beloved citizen, James C. Brashear, and dwelling over the sad fate of our dear departed friend, I am prompted to write the following lines:

A loved one stood at duty's post,
And strove to bide the hour;
He said (his face lit up with smiles)
"I'm going home to-morrow!"
But of 't with smiling lips we say
What we shall do to-morrow
And E're the close of that bright day
Our heads be bowed in sorrow.

"You know 't will be Thanksgiving day,"
Thus speaking in a careless tone,
"With you my boys I cannot stay"
"For I am going home."

"Going home." Just one year ago,
These last sad words were spoken
But e're the close of that sad day
Some hearts were almost broken.

For Oh? the morrow never came
To see his earthy home,
His gentle spirit took its flight
Up to the heavenly throne.

Oh! silent shadowy stream of death
On thy dark billows lay
Forever launched, a snowy barque
To bear some soul away.

Sometimes the morn brings happy thoughts,
To make the heart so gay and light
But when the day has passed away,
O'er sorrow cometh with the night.

And yet the sun will spread his beams
To greet the morn so gladly,
And kiss the pure clear crystal streams
That run on earth and madly.

When Oh? how quick a change can be
When thunders roar so fierce and loud
The golden sun no longer sees,
But in his place an angry cloud.

Poor hopeful hearts, so like the sun,
May seem as bright and gay,
When disappointment as a cloud
Overshadows every ray.

To Advertisers

If you wish to advertise

and need instruction, send one dollar for our "Book for Advertisers." A little study of that book will enable you to decide what you ought to do, and give an idea of the probable cost.

If you instruct us to place a certain amount of advertising for you in the way we think will do you the most good, you should send an explicit statement of what you wish to accomplish, and make suitable arrangements for payment. Your order will then receive all the attention that it requires.

If you wish an advertisement prepared and a plan of advertising marked out; to be told what papers you should use, and what the cost will be, we will furnish the advertisement and the plan—either or both, and submit them for your consideration, together with our bill for the service.

For preparing advertisements, electrotypes and estimates the advertiser pays us. For the expense of placing advertisements and watching the fulfillment of contracts we are paid by a commission allowed by the publisher of the paper in which the advertisement appears.

If you want to learn all the ins and outs of advertising without any cost or trouble, read "Purvisers' Lex" regularly, carefully, studiously; issued weekly, $2 a year. If you wish a complete catalogue of all newspapers, send $5 for the American Newspaper Directory.

Headquarters for Santa Claus

GET THE BEST.

The Best is good enough for this discriminating child. The Best is good enough for the man who respects himself and loves his family. Such a man always wants the Best Groceries, and buys them of knowing that he always keeps the Best that the market affords and retails them at proper prices.

R. E. MOORMAN,
